Transfer Admission Requirements:

1. Competitive GPA; generally a 2.5 GPA (4.0 scale). Students who are above a 2.0 GPA, but do not meet the competitive GPA, will typically be waitlisted and asked to write a personal statement.
2. Must be in good standing with previous schools attended.

Notes:

1. If student had four (4) years of one foreign language in high school, with no grade lower than a C, then the foreign language requirement will have been met. Otherwise, student must complete four (4) semesters of college foreign language. If foreign language requirement is met, then the student may substitute elective courses to obtain the sixty (60) hours required. Suggestions for substitute courses are: SOCY 201, SOCY 202, SOCY 205, SOCY 225, SOCY 230, CRIM 100, CRIM 105, CRIM 170, CRIM 180, or CRIM 204.
2. If the student does not take SPAN 104 due to fulfilling foreign language requirement in high school, then student will need to take a humanities or fine arts elective in its place.
3. For the B.S. degree, MATH 135 Intro to Analysis II (Finite Math) and MATH 120 Calculus I are required.
